

CSIM Annual Meeting 2025

In collaboration with the ACP Atlantic Provinces Chapter
Halifax Convention Centre, Nova Scotia

October 15-17, 2025

Sponsorship and Exhibit Opportunities

Be seen at the CSIM Annual Meeting!

The Canadian Society of Internal Medicine (CSIM) is a national medical society of physicians who are specialists in the broad discipline of general internal medicine. Members provide expert medical care for adults with complex multi-system diseases at community and academic hospitals across Canada, are teachers of medical students and residents and leaders in health research.

Join us at this outstanding conference for clinicians, educators, and researchers in internal medicine and general internal medicine!

Benefits of participation include:

- Opportunities to network with physicians, residents, and other medical professionals.
- Exhibit placement amongst the refreshment breaks to enhance networking.
- Participation in the “Passport to the Exhibits” program to encourage visits to the exhibits.
- Opportunities to attend scientific sessions and gain insight into topics relevant to your target audience.

Space is limited – Reserve today!
